and your reason you say for wanting to kill the bill is not a difference in philosophy with the intent of the bill but with the practical results in your part of the country, it seems like, maybe, you would go along with Senator Stull amendment to strike "ranch and farm workers", but since that didn't work already, that is why you have to kill the whole bill?

SENATOR DECAMP: Well, no..no, I have...I have not even talked to Senator Stull about this. I am sure Senator Stull figured I would be on the other side and didn't contact me for that reason. What Senator Kelly brought up though...what Senator Kelly brought up about Workmen's compensation was something that would be just as true whether you had the farm and ranch included or the whole package.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Now, suppose the Federal government does preempt the...

SPEAKER: Senator Chambers, you've had ten minutes now and there is motion to adjourn.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, really.

SPEAKER: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I don't object to adjourning now.

SPEAKER: There is a motion to adjourn, the chair will have to recognize that motion
